

Poster Development Workshop (or How to show off a good story)

Sponsored by

OHSU's Nursing Research Council and the Oregon Nursing Research & Quality Consortium

Successful poster presentations depend on having a good story to tell and telling that story in a way that captures an audience. In this interactive workshop, participants will learn about key elements for successfully telling a story and strategies to enhance visual communication. Participants will also learn and rehearse technical aspects for developing a poster using powerpoint.
